HOMework LOUISIANA

LaKeisha Bosworth serves the Library as Youth Services Coordinator. As part of her job, she encourages children, teenagers and parents to use educational resources like Homework Louisiana. As a mom, she's seen success with the program in her own son Deuce.

? AS A MOM, WHAT DID YOU LIKE MOST ABOUT DEUCE'S HOMEWORK LOUISIANA EXPERIENCE?

I loved the fact that they were able to help him with his chemistry questions because I couldn't. Watching him interact with the tutor as they worked the question was great as well. They worked through the problem beginning to end and the tutor guided him through by asking him questions as well. I saw the "Aha!" moment as they worked through the problem. He then felt confident about completing the other questions on his assignment.

? HOW DID IT FEEL WHEN HE GOT THE A?

He was super proud of his grade. He's always been a great student academically, but chemistry was a challenge. He was able to bring his B up to an A. I'm proud to say he finished with an A in chemistry for the year. He finished the school year with 4.0 GPA.

? IN THE AGE OF VIRTUAL LEARNING, WHY IS HOMEWORK LOUISIANA SO IMPORTANT?

Many parents may feel pressure or unsure about the school year. If they are returning to school or choosing virtual learning, Homework Louisiana can help them and their children with work they may not understand or need additional guidance. You don't have to feel embarrassed or ashamed to use Homework Louisiana at any age. The services are available to increase your knowledge and advance your academic career. As a parent, you want to be able to help your child and Homework Louisiana helps you achieve this goal.

Get Started

Get started with Homework Louisiana at our website www.oplib.org or at www.homeworkla.org. Live one-on-one help is available for Kindergarten – College from 2 p.m. – midnight daily. The adult education and career center is open from 10 a.m. – midnight daily.

OUR FAVORITE COOKBOOKS

MY FAVORITE RECIPE IS “Favorite Pecan Pie” from
The Ultimate Southern Living Cookbook.

? HOW OFTEN DO YOU CHECK OUT COOKBOOKS FROM THE LIBRARY?

I check cookbooks out pretty frequently, about three to four a month.

? WHAT DO YOUR PATRONS SAY ABOUT COOKBOOKS?

Patrons will tell us whether the cookbook was a hit or miss and with a critique on the recipe they made. We also get the occasional out-of-the-blue warning of “Don’t waste your time,” “Waaay too complicated for the end result,” or my personal favorite from a few years ago, “It can’t hurt me and my kitchen anymore.”

? WHY DO PEOPLE LOVE TO CHECK OUT COOKBOOKS DURING THE FALL?

Patrons want to get into the spirit of the holidays! Thanksgiving and Christmas are really daunting, so they’ll psych themselves up with a cookbook. They will usually say, “I think I can make that...”

? WHY IS IT GREAT TO READ PRINT COOKBOOKS IN THE AGE OF COOKING APPS AND PINTEREST?

With a physical book, it’s a lot of fun to search for the not-so-common ingredients, almost like it’s a scavenger hunt! Online recipes are good for “in the moment” cooking to make something with ingredients you already have on hand. Still, with a book in hand, there’s just something about the safety of knowing you’ve got the recipe right next to you. If you make a mistake, it’s got your back.

• Willetta is famous in the Quachita Parish Public Library system for her delicious pies and baked goods. She and her mom tried their hand at the “Favorite Pecan Pie” recipe found in The Ultimate Southern Living Cookbook. It was as delicious as it was beautiful. Check it out or any of the thousands of cookbooks on our shelves. You can find cookbooks in the 641.5 section of your local branch. Not sure where that is? Just ask a librarian!

PRESIDENT MARIANE JONES SHARES WHY SHE LOVES BEING A FRIEND:

Having grown up in the Ouachita Parish Public Library system, my very first library was in downtown Monroe across from St. Francis Hospital. I loved libraries so much that I earned my master's degree from the LSU Library School. My very first professional position was at the Main Branch.

I have been a member of the Friends since 2013. I was a board member when we created the bylaws and during the process of gaining our 501c3 status.

Getting to be with others who are like-minded about the inexhaustible world of books has been the joy of being a member. Our "Worker Bees" constantly replenish and organize books and media for easy shopping. The board members who meet each month take care of making sure our organization runs smoothly and enables us to disburse approved "mini grants" to the various branches.

We are always interested in adding new volunteers and board members who are interested in furthering our mission, "A nonprofit corporation which was formed to make a positive difference in the quality of life for the parish by providing financial and voluntary services in direct support of the library's many and varied educational, informational, cultural and recreational programs."

The Friends are not just Friends to the Library, but they are my wonderful friends. I do hope you can join us.

MARIANE JONES

GARDENIA THE LIBRARY CAT

THE CAT TALE AMONG CATTAILS

Decades ago, rats were a problem in libraries. To get rid of the problem, many libraries got a cat. Ouachita Parish was no exception.

In the early 1950s, Library Director Frances Flanders had a rat problem. The rats were eating away at the magazine collection. A Library patron named Faith Johnson heard about the dilemma and gave the Library a female kitten. The little kitten was pure white with pinkish ears. The librarians fell instantly in love with her. The newest staff member was dubbed "Gardenia" after a cat in a book one of the librarians had read. Gardenia earned her keep, as the rat problem was soon taken care of!

Gardenia grew into a sociable animal. Patrons who would sit down to do research would most likely soon find a lap full of cat! She allowed the children to carry her around without a mew of protest. It was said she never scratched a soul. She loved educational films and sat quietly with the children to watch. Patrons loved her. As a matter of fact, one wrote a poem about her, which appeared in Cats Magazine.

Gardenia would not eat alone. Ms. Flanders tried to feed her on the front steps, but Gardenia would not touch her food without someone there. Ms. Flanders soon learned to eat her lunches with Gardenia in her Library office. One of Gardenia's favorite foods was cottage cheese. She demanded her share of any that came in the building.

As well as being social, Gardenia was a very curious cat. When a new shipment of books came in, she would sit on it until her curiosity was satisfied! When the new copier came in, Gardenia went inside it, made herself comfortable and began using it as her bed at night.

Gardenia's official cat door was the book slot in the front door. Gardenia coming out of her cat door was recorded for all posterity. In 1952, the Library hired a film crew come shoot video of the branches. While filming the front door of the then Main Branch on Jackson Street, Gardenia jumped out of the book slot!

The filmmaker decided to use the shot and it became the opening of the film.

One of the local newspapers wrote a feature article about Gardenia in 1957, complete with pictures. It caught national attention. Three months later, Gardenia was awarded "The Puss'n Boots Bronze Award Citation" for "outstanding custodianship." Ms. Flanders displayed it proudly next to the prestigious John Cotton Dana and Modisette Awards the Library had won. It was also during this time that Gardenia was "catnapped." Someone broke down the door of the Library and the next morning, she was gone. It was assumed the burglar had stolen Gardenia. A few hours later, she reappeared. She was shaken and upset but the staff was ecstatic. Ms. Flanders thought Gardenia had managed to outsmart her captor and escape. She probably had been frightened by the noise and ran away to hide.

In the spring of 1959, the new Main Branch opened where it stands today on Stubbs Avenue. It was feared that Gardenia would not take the change well. She had never ventured more than a half block from the Jackson Street location and hated cars. After the staff moved her and opened her kennel, Gardenia explored her new kingdom and found it worthy. Everyone breathed a sigh of relief.

As the years wore on, Gardenia went into semi-retirement. She spent most of her days in the filing room on a white satin pillow. She still loved the kids and would make her appearances every now and again.

On June 12, 1963, Gardenia passed away from illness. It is not known where she was buried. All that remains of Gardenia's memory are a few yellowed newspaper clippings, her brief image on film and her framed award which can be found in the Library's Genealogy Department. Local Baby Boomers and those of the Greatest Generation however, will never forget the little white cat who brought such joy to Library patrons in Ouachita Parish.
